PLANETARY SYNTHESIS – A STRUCTURAL PLAN

EDUCATION AS THE INITIAL BASIS FOR A STRATEGY TOWARDS PLANETARY SYNTHESIS

In a world where unity is essential for survival, we aim at a global education with values shared by all humanity and accepted by all the different educational systems, religions and ideologies.

We outline below five basic principles as a starting point for a co-operative, international education towards planetary synthesis. With these qualities, cultivated and practised daily, it should become possible to build up the new systems and structures so urgently needed today, thus helping to create a new civilisation and a new culture, in a spirit of unity in diversity among people and nations. The most important factor is the voluntary education of ourselves, as individuals, along the following guidelines:

Love of Truth as the only sure standard for a just and inclusive far-sighted society.

Sense of Justice that embraces love and compassion, broadmindedness, understanding and readiness towards self-forgetfulness.

Sense of Personal Responsibility towards group concerns, the community and the nation as well as a sense of self-control in personal matters.

Co-operative Thinking that rests on active good will and the principle of right human relationships.

Serving the Common Good through active personal effort and the readiness to share with others. Only that which serves the whole is also of value to the individual, in the sense of 'one for all and all for one'. (1)

The IPS, founded in Geneva in 1981, is an international, not-for-profit organisation dedicated to promoting constructive cooperation in all fields of human activity. It is a non-governmental organisation on the Roster of the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations.

Guided by these basic values, it is possible to develop an all-pervading, ten-fold group structure that gives new life to all existing groups, governments and organisations, including the United Nations.

The groups will consist of men and women whom we may call 'experts' because they are not only highly competent specialists in one particular sphere of work but will also be able to offer solutions to recognised problems based on their many-faceted experience in their daily endeavours and above all in their spiritual life. They will not only speak of 'know how' but will also demonstrate 'know who'. These experts will find a point of convergence in the plan of a global group structure as illustrated below. They will not appear as organisations but rather as a living organism imbuing all existing, far-sighted groups with new life, although the first three groups will be working on a more spiritual level.

TELEPATHIC COMMUNICATORS	1 *
TRAINED OBSERVERS	2 *
MAGNETIC HEALERS	3 *
EDUCATORS IN THE NEW AGE	4 *
POLITICAL ORGANISERS	5 *
WORKERS IN THE FIELD OF RELIGION	6 *
SCIENTIFIC SERVERS	7 *
PSYCHOLOGISTS	8 *
FINANCIERS AND ECONOMISTS	9 *
CREATIVE WORKERS	10 *

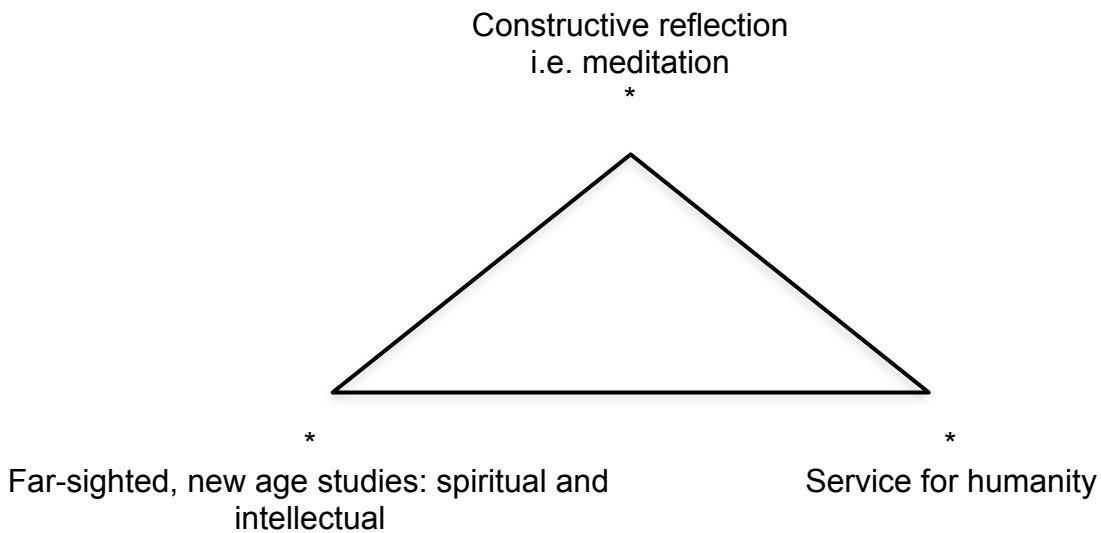

In conjunction with this diagram, the specific tasks of every seed group are shortly presented below. The 8th and 10th seed groups form an exception that has been described as follows:

The nature of the anima mundi, the fact of the subjective consciousness found in all forms without exception, and the existence of an interplay between these forms, through the medium of the soul, will be the major theme (of the 8th group). Soul sensitivity and reaction to the energy in any form will be the training objective of the group members. Owing to the difficulty of this task, the members of this 8th group will be chosen from the personal of the other groups, for they have had a fair measure of training in their preliminary work. Two groups will then be interlocking groups – that which is formed of the key people in all the groups (the 10th group of creative workers) and this one. (2)

This group structure may thus be represented by the following diagram:

An expert or world server is guided by the spirit of right human relationships and is therefore described as a soul infused personality. These servers basically work – consciously or unconsciously – through the energy triangle

Here is a short description of the tasks or spheres of work of all 10 seed groups: (3)

Telepathic Communicators

Telepathic communication from soul to soul through alignment; from mind to mind through integration; between humanity and the inner government of the planet through the science of impression.

Trained Observers

Dissipation of world glamour, illusion and maya through illumination.

Magnetic Healers

Through 'magnetic living'.

Through laws of life, laws of health and right human relationships.

Through continuity of consciousness.

Educators in the New Age

Education through inflow of the light of knowledge into 'instinctual man'; through inflow of the light of wisdom into 'intelligent man'; through applied knowledge, expressed wisdom and occult understanding in 'spiritual man'.

Political Organisers

International understanding through communication of the divine (political) Will into races and nations, linking the department of the Manu (the ruler of the human race) with men.

Workers in the field of Religion

Through transcendental mysticism

Through transcendental occultism

Through transcendental religion

Scientific Servers

Through development of new hypotheses to substantiate the next step forward.

Through sensitive reaction to spiritual energies and forces.

Through release of energy to relate spirit and matter and precipitate the divine Plan.

Psychologists

Through relationship of the human kingdom to the sub-human and the super-human kingdom.

Through a study of the divine Plan for the five kingdoms in nature.

Financiers and Economists

Through study of the nature of prana or etheric energy.

Through study of deflection of this form of concretised energy into constructive channels and 'ways of light'.

Through study of the law of supply and demand.

Creative Workers

Through linking life and form.

Through philosophical relationship of all 10 groups.

Through demonstration of synthesis and the Plan.

This global group structure is an organism, a web of life working through far-sighted groups, governments, organisations and the United Nations.
